

Dr. Peter Ameglio (pictured on the right) of Gardner Orthopedics uses the SuperPath® approach to treat his hip replacement patients. The approach, which does not require the cutting of any muscles or tendons, allows patients to get home and return to activities faster.

Dr. Worden (pictured on the left), an anesthesiologist in Naples, recently underwent a SuperPath® hip replacement. Dr. Worden was back to work in four weeks and playing eighteen holes on the golf course in six weeks.
